

Write-up on Mr Edmund Leow

Mr Edmund Leow graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Law (First Class Honours) from the University of Cambridge in 1986. Mr Leow was admitted as a Solicitor in England & Wales in 1990 and in Hong Kong (SAR) in 1991, and as a Advocate and Solicitor in Singapore in 1996. Mr Leow, currently the Managing Principal of the law firm Baker & McKenzie, began his career with the firm in London and has also practised with the firm in Hong Kong. His specialisation is tax and corporate law.

2 Mr Leow was the Founding Member & Vice President of the Singapore Trustees Association when it was set up in 2002, and held the position of the Association's President (2004 – 2008) and subsequently, Vice President (2008 – 2013).

3 Mr Leow, age 50, is married with two children.